Breadline Africa Celebrates Mandela Day at Cebolethu Educare Centre in Mfuleni, Cape Town 18 July 2015.

Breadline Africa staff spent the morning handing out food packs to more than 100 children in Mfuleni after officially handing over a container library to Cebolethu Educare Centre in Mfuleni, Cape Town.

In the past, and in partnership with Little Libraries, Cebolethu Educare Centre opened its doors every Saturday morning to run reading sessions for up to 100 community children and youth. Without proper facilities this welcomed activity was straining the small shack structure. From very early in the morning, the Educare Centre was abuzz with parents, the children and the entire community as we launched the 6 meter container library. A selection of isiXhosa books also donated by Breadline Africa will further support on-going reading.

Breadline Africa is confident that the container library will be used to its maximum with the support of Little Libraries. For them this serves as the 100th library that they will be mentoring and monitoring on a regular basis. The library will be functional during the week, after school hours and on Saturdays. A local and unemployed community member is all geared up to facilitate the reading club. With the assurance that the library is in capable hands, Breadline Africa is confident that the Mfuleni children and youth aged 5-18 years will continue to experience the joy of reading for pleasure and further expand their minds. Just the way Madiba would have liked!
