

Little Angels Educare Centre, Hout Bay 19 November 2015

Little Angels Educare Centre in the village of Hout Bay, Western Cape, was the scene for the delivery of a new container toilet opened today on World Toilet day, the 19th November 2015. The day has special significance given that 2,4 billion people globally do not have access to proper sanitation. In South Africa 1.4 million households have no sanitation at all. The children at this centre had previously had to make use of two hired portable toilets which often fell over in the frequent high winds.

The toilets, donated by the generous donors of Breadline Africa, consisted of a six metre container converted into four children's toilets and one adult toilet, plus washing basins. The children will be taught how to use these facilities and how to keep themselves healthy and free of diseases like diarrhoea which cause so much illness amongst children living in poverty.

Speakers at the occasion included the Chairman of the Little Angels Board, Mr. Peter Dutton, the Director of Breadline Africa - Tim Smith and the manager and founder of Little Angels - Liezl Matthews.

Liezl spoke passionately about her work with the centre which cares for the children of so many parents who are unemployed and mostly addicted to alcohol or drugs. She thanked the many partners who had helped her over the
